Due to the uncertainty of the Coronavirus situation, dates and events are continually changing. Periodically check websites. www.calpacumc.org/umw
President’s Thoughts

My things have changed since our last newsletter was sent out in February! January 2020 seems so long ago, but that was when we heard a non-pneumonia virus was identified. Since then, we met for the Mid-Winter event as the Cal-Pac Conference. In March, our churches shut down and we were asked to stay home.

How did our United Methodist Women react to the 1918 influenza? We know that they would have been helping others cope with the uncertainty. We also know that most likely they did not meet in person. Today, during this pandemic we have the advantage of being able to meet virtually or with a phone call. If you are considering meeting virtually, we can help you. If your local organization meets virtually now, please let us know how it’s going. We would appreciate your contributions. For example, some United Methodist Women have sent me saved recordings their “Teas” and other Zoom gatherings.

Some of us from the North District were able to watch the film, “Zero Weeks” in a watch party and participate in a discussion afterwards. And take part in the United Methodist Women podcast Faith Talks. These are available at https://www.unitedmethodistwomen.org/faithtalks. The Faith Talks have been a lifeline during this crisis.

I appreciated that one of the speakers mentioned in last week’s Faith Talk on Anxiety was that helping others can help decrease our own anxiety. There are others who have started projects to help front line workers. As you will read in the other articles in this newsletter, we can do more than wash our hands.

During this time, I also encourage you to enjoy books in the UMW Reading Program (Pgs 11-12).

Our National mission institutions still need your financial support. Continue to send in your pledges to our North District Treasurer, Alva Mayo.

More Updates:

• Mission u has been rescheduled to August 22nd and August 29th (online only). I am hoping that more of us can participate as we move online. The books that we read for Mission u also count toward the Reading Program.

• Calling u: Western Jurisdiction Quadrennial Event has been rescheduled to September 11, 2020—September 13, 2020. We will have our North District Annual Meeting and Celebration on September 19th. More information to follow.

• Our Annual Meeting will most likely be online only.

In closing, keep in mind the good things that have come out of this experience. Think of the positive changes you have made in your life since you have had to remain at home. Many of us have started new habits, new routines, or revisited old hobbies. Good things have come out of this experience.

Remember that you are not alone and reach out to each other for comfort and fellowship. I keep you in my prayers always.

Your sister in Christ,

Amybeth Lake, President

Greetings from your Vice President

To my UMW Sisters in Christ,

Since our last North District Newsletter our lives have been “turned upside down”, as I have heard from some people. We have never experienced such an epidemic, only have our parents and great grandparents. I’m sure, as I do, you feel like daily experiences are trials. And, some difficulties to face such as, our health, our loved one’s health, isolation, keeping busy, grocery shopping, keeping in touch with loved ones and missing our church family and friends. What helps me is to keep a routine and talk to friends on the phone or email old friends...this will help us smile and lift our spirits. Oh, and don’t forget your daily devotions!

I’m so glad I picked up the Jan/Feb Response Magazine, because of the article “The Impact of United Methodist Women”. I especially like the subtitle the author, Christi Campos, added, United Methodist Women not only changes the world for the better, it changes its members. How has United Methodist Women made an impact in your life?

I’ve been thinking about this question for a day or two and I’m going to share my thoughts...United Methodist Women was and is in my blood (UMW has had different names since 1869!). When growing up, I remember my mother was active in UMW, but it was called WSCS (Women Society of Christian Service). She was active until she was in her 80’s. My grandmother Harrington was active, and even WSCS President for 4 years (1937-41) in Simi Valley.

I have been a part of UMW for almost 48 years...I started when pregnant with my first child. I remember the night circle gave me a Baby Shower! It was comforting to be in a small group of caring Christian women, especially when mom lived an hour away. Throughout my life and Christian journey, I continue to love and appreciate what UMW has done for me. There are so many activities that UMW has sponsored or hosted and planned, that I feel I have grown to be the Christian woman I am today. The United Methodist Women’s small groups help us to become caring women. Small groups may be Bible study, Committee for fundraisers, planning spiritual retreats, planning Mother’s Day luncheons. Also, being on the Executive Board for the UMW helps us to learn about leadership and become Christian leaders. Also, during a weekend in the summer for Mission u, I love the UMW’s unique opportunity to study a Social Action issue, a Spiritual Growth and a Geographic study. This is my summary of why and how United Methodist Women has made an impact on my life.

You have probably heard “We (UMW) are movers and shakers because we have answered the call to mission as United Methodist Women.” I feel everything I am today is because of my faith and UMW. My concluding question to you is, “How has United Methodist Women made an impact in your life”?

As Vice President of the North District, my responsibility is to “get the ball rolling” or the planning started for each North District event. We are starting the plans for our Annual Meeting and Celebration, mark your calendars for September 19th. YES, its true...the where and how are the most difficult to answer during this pandemic, so more than likely it will be a virtual meeting. Feel free to email me with your thoughts.

Treasurer’s Thoughts

I can’t believe that it is already May 2020. We are still staying in and keeping our safe distance. I pray that this too will pass sooner than later. I have been blessed that my friends and family are healthy, safe and sound. I pray every day for all my Sisters in Christ that we will all survive this pandemic virus.

We have so much to do and with the Lord’s blessing and guidance we will succeed. UMW North District is moving right along. We had an Executive Board Zoom meeting on May 2. First time for me and we managed very well.

Financial report - as of April 30, 2020 we have received a total of $8,542.57 from our Local Organizations. I appreciate your efforts and know that you are doing the best that you can under the circumstances. Every little bit helps. Our pledge to conference goal is $85,000.00.

Reminders:
- Always submit a Remittance Form with your payments, Pg 24
- Any donations to the Legacy Fund should go directly to National, Pg 23

Present God, when the water is muddy and its direction unclear, help us remember that mud and movement bring new life to new places. And when that mud and movement feels like a swirling mess, remind us that it may be your stirrings. Ground us in you, guiding God. Let our work be good for our church and our church be good for your world. From March/April Response Magazine

God Bless you,
Alva Mayo, North District Treasurer

5-Star Giving makes mission possible.

Here are the five channels of Giving your unit can do to receive a 5-Star Award.

Explore five ways you can donate to the ministry and mission of United Methodist Women.

1. Pledge to Mission An individual member’s Pledge to Mission is the amount a woman gives to her local unit to help fulfill the Purpose of United Methodist Women. To United Methodist Women’s national office for mission with women, children and youth and retains a designated percent to be used for district and conference administration and membership development expenses.

2. World Thank Offering Spontaneous additional gifts can be given out of gratitude for God’s abundance and in celebration of the joys of life. The World Thank Offering is an opportunity for individuals to respond to God’s abundance and grace with spontaneous gifts of gratitude. The funds collected are used in the total program of mission carried on through United Methodist Women’s national office in the United States and around the world.

3. Special Mission Recognition These pins offer a meaningful way to honor members who have dedicated so much time and effort to service. Gift amounts range from $40 to $2,000. Special Mission Recognition certificates and pins are ordered by the local treasurer through the district's treasurer, using the spaces provided on the treasurer's remittance form. The district treasurer sends the order to the conference treasurer, who sends it to United Methodist Women's national office. The Special Mission Recognition is sent from the national office to the honoree or to the person whose name and address were given on the original order. Allow plenty of time to receive the pin.

4. Gift to Mission Make a gift of $5 or more in honor of someone and send a card to the honoree. The following cards are available: Congratulations, Thank You, A Baby, In the Service of Christ, A Special Day, Thinking of You, Happy Birthday and assortment of Christmas cards. If your Local organization would like to order cards, please fill out the form to send in with your Remittance.

5. Gift in Memory Give a gift in memory of a member, a friend or anyone, in any amount of $5 or more. Gift in Memory cards, available free, may be sent to the family of the deceased.

Reminders:
Remittances sent from your Local Organization need to be received by the 20th of the month in order to be counted for that month. Year-End Remittance Forms must be received by December 6th.

Questions: Please contact Alva Mayo, alvamay@aol.com, 626-791-1978

UMW Legacy Fund Endowment Campaign donations are always welcome.

Committee on Nominations

I hope all of you are doing well during this trying time with the virus and all the restrictions that go with it.

Take comfort in this scripture from Isaiah 41:10

Do not fear, for I am with you. Do not be dismayed for I am your God.
I will strengthen you and help you. I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.

As you know, life goes on in spite of not knowing what lies ahead for us as a District, Conference, and our Local Organizations.

------------------------------------------------------------------------

Philippians 4:7

Rejoice in the Lord always; again, I will say Rejoice, let your gentleness be known to everyone.

The Lord is near. Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your request be made known to God. And the peace of God which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus

I lost my mom on April 28, 2020 to COVID-19. Since that day, I have not had much to say to anyone. Our relationship was odd to say the least. I have never had trouble talking to anyone at any time, but I have no words. I cannot watch the news! I have never been reading a lot of scripture. I chose Philippians 4:7 because it spoke to my heart, I hope it speaks to you.

I found a poem by Laura Kelly Fanucci and with her permission I share her words.

When this is over

When this is over, may we never again take for granted
A handshake with a stranger
Full shelves at the store
Conversation with neighbors
A crowded theater
Friday nights out
The taste of communion
A routine check-up
The school rush each morning Whenever this ends
Coffee with a friend May we find that we have become more
The stadium roaring like the people we want to be we hope to be
Each deep breath and may we stay that way- better for each other
Life itself because of the worst

Let us all lift up in prayer, Doctors, Nurses and Firefighters, all Hospital staff, Police, Paramedics and all those who have lost loved ones to COVID-19.

Let’s Pray - Gracious and loving God, you are our comforter and hope, hear our prayers as we come before you. Strengthen us in this time of need, inspire us to do acts of solidarity and generosity and give us hope for a brighter future.

I love you all! I keep you all close to my heart and in my prayers!

Love one another, be kind to everyone, take care of yourself. Be at Peace.

Greetings from the Book Corner! Amber & I have been busy reading more new books from the list, as we have been practicing our “social distancing”. As our Program Resources Coordinator, I had just ordered new books when the ‘lockdown’ was issued. So, there I was with 6-7 more new books at home. Can I recommend any of them? Yes!

One book that I found and read was Easter Stories, which is a compilation of stories. Not all related to Easter, but they are entertaining, and faith based. Written by a variety of authors, among them C. S. Lewis, Leo Tolstoy, and Oscar Wilde. Well worth the read.

Another good book (and an easy read) is, A Cage Without Bars, by Anne Dublin. This is a story of young children during the reign of the Spanish Inquisition, that are captured, made slaves, and taken to an island off the African coast. It really opened my eyes to new things and insights. Obviously, this is a Social Action book.

Yes, Amber and I got creative. I ordered some more books and made them available via social distancing for the women who live near me to borrow, read, and return. Although I have not yet had many takers, it was not for lack of trying.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions about the Reading Program (Forms follow on Pgs 9-12). I look forward to hearing from all the Local Organizations.

Blessings and happy reading!

Sheryl and Amber, my little helper

Since this article was written, sadly, Amber passed away at age 11 years

- Selections can be from the 2015–2020 reading lists if not included in previous reports (including children and youth titles)
- Regular reading of response magazine

PLAN II: 10 books a year
- Two books from each category: Education for Mission, Leadership Development, Nurturing for Community, Social Action and Spiritual Growth
- Selections can be from the 2015–2020 reading lists if not included in previous reports (including children and youth titles)
- Regular reading of response magazine.

PLAN III: 15 books a year
- Two books from each category: Education for Mission, Leadership Development, Nurturing for Community, Social Action and Spiritual Growth
- Plus five additional books from any category
- Selections can be from the 2015–2020 reading lists if not included in previous reports (including children and youth titles)
- Regular reading of response magazine.

PLAN IV: 20 books a year
- Two books from each category: Education for Mission, Leadership Development, Nurturing for Community, Social Action and Spiritual Growth
- Plus ten additional books from any category
- Selections can be from the 2015–2020 reading lists if not included in previous reports (including children and youth titles)
- Regular reading of response magazine.

BONUS BOOKS
Bonus Books count as two books!
The 2020 Reading Program bonus books are the current United Methodist Women mission studies.

Dear UMW friends,

I greet you as your Social Action Coordinator of the North District. I hope you are finding music that lifts you up. One song that does that for me is, Carry On by Crosby, Stills, Nash, and Young. The complete lyrics don’t all fit, but this does - “Carry on, love is coming, love is coming to us all.”

Thank you to each Local Organization that attended one of the Local Leadership Trainings offered in January and February. And here is another reminder that we can follow The UMW Prayer Calendar on Facebook at www.facebook.com/umwprayercalendar/

Visit the Cal-Pac UMW website, http://www.calpacumc.org/umw for our valuable Cal-Pac UMW Pacific Waves Newsletter. (You may copy and paste this link to get the newsletter.)

I am grateful that I have a few friends who are interested and willing to read, So You Want To Talk About Race by Ijeoma Oluo. It is a good companion to Push Out: The Criminalization of Black Girls in Schools by Monique W. Morris. The latter is a double-credit reading program book and text for Mission u. Please see about that in Pacific Waves. Racism is in our faces so let us become better informed so we can make our communities more equitable.

An effort that needs our support is the Hygiene Kit Collection of Crossroads United Methodist Church in Compton. It has had a published deadline, but I think that their need for supplies or funds to buy supplies for the recently released incarcerated, will continue. From Brenda Tuita, our Cal-Pac Social Action Coordinator--

I hope all is well with you during this hard time and to God be the glory for his unconditional love to all so we can be able to continue on his mission no matter what for such a time as this. I have received a calling from our UMW President that there is a need for our help and here is the breakdown. Pastor Adrienne Zackery from Crossroads UMC, is reaching out to groups who may be interested in providing Hygiene Kits due to the recently released 3,500 persons from custody in order to avoid the COVID-19 infection. (Flyer on next Pg 14a)

Monetary Support:

Write check to: Crossroads United Methodist Church
(Mark in Memo section, Hygiene Kit UMW. We will track on how much UMW contributed for this vital mission.)

Mission Education

As we sit in our homes contemplating our world with the coronavirus, we have all sorts of questions and issues and worries about ourselves, our churches and our friends. I am asking you to also spend just a little bit of time thinking about the United Methodist Women’s mission field.

We continue to have missionaries serving in the United States and throughout the world helping those people who are homeless, who are hungry for food and for spiritual enlightenment, who just want to be loved and needed, and for many other things. While we may not be able to physically go to these people and help at this time, we can still learn, pray, give, think, and live in such a way that we are doing what we can for our church in the world.

As the North District Coordinator of Education for Mission, in this time I want to raise up some ideas. We can read and listen to various sources of information about our missions. The Response Magazine has wonderful stories about activities throughout the world. They are informative and also inspirational. Also, our computers are a wonderful source for material.

We have two National Mission facilities close to us. Each of them has wonderful stories and many opportunities for us to serve and learn. David & Margaret Youth and Family Services is located in Laverne, CA. Their website, https://www.davidandmargaret.org/ is a wonderful resource and has interesting ideas. They have a way for you to send messages to young adults served by their service. Toberman Neighborhood Center is the other Mission facility. Their website, https://toberman.org/ also offers wonderful information and ideas. It is helpful to us to learn more about these local mission areas. Many of us have visited them, but the websites keep us up-to-date.

A National resource of information about mission work is found in the United Methodist Women website: www.unitedmethodistwomen.org The National Mission Institutions website provides articles about various mission projects. Again, a nice place to look up, https://www.unitedmethodistwomen.org/nmi

Every year we celebrate mission with Mission u. This year the virus has challenged us here as well as everywhere. The three-day mission studies event at Azusa Pacific University has been cancelled. In its place, the Conference and National UMW are working to provide some on-line studies with trained study leaders. Please keep an eye out for information about this at website, http://www.calpacumc.org/umw for precise information. I believe that this will give many of us an opportunity to receive some wonderful learning tools. Two new books which have been designated for study this year are, Finding Peace in an Anxious World edited by Erin James-Brown – Could there possibly be a more relevant topic than this; and Push Out – The Criminalization of Black Girls in Schools by Monique W. Morris. The first can be ordered through the UMW Mission Resources. Push Out is available from bookstores and Amazon. I recommend both of these.

Your United Methodist Women’s group and your church are still involved in Mission activities, even if not quite so hands-on. We continue to be the church. We continue to help each other, pray, study, attend church over the internet, and do what we can to learn and to help each other.

Praise us and our mission field as we strive to be the best Christians we can in this trying time.

My prayers and thoughts are with you. Barbara Williams, Mission Education

Korean Language Coordinator

On behalf of National Network of Korean-American UMw I am honored to be announcing the news during our difficult period time. To all of our beloved NNKUMw members around the nation who are practicing our motto of “Faith, Hope, and Love in Action!” Our passion for saving lives, fighting the corona virus, and fulfilling God’s Kingdom on earth.

Making Masks that Save Lives Project

NNKUMw started “Making Masks that Save Lives Project” in order to help neighbors in need due to the COVID-19 Pandemic. KUMW members around the country are making masks out of clothes they find in their houses, either through sewing machines or by hand, and handing them out to nearby nursing homes, homeless shelters, volunteer centers, children centers, etc. to support the vulnerable members of the community. Hearing the news that medical workers are struggling from lack of PPEs and masks in New York, the epicenter of the virus, we purchased and delivered 2,300 N-98 masks to New York and New Jersey hospitals. as a joint effort by New York Conference KUMw Network and the NNKUMw.

New York Conference KUMw Network purchased 500 surgical masks, packed them into 3 pieces each, and delivered them to the homeless in the Manhattan region. For other regions, they decided to collect handmade masks by the churches at every end of the month for the next 3 months, which would be delivered to community volunteer centers.

Greater New Jersey Conference KUMw Network is supporting masks and necessities to hospitals, nursing homes, and police stations with collaborative efforts from each church.

Delaware-Maryland Conference KUMw Network has sent masks to Johns Hopkins Hospital and other neighboring hospitals, as well as made 120 masks and delivered them to Korean Senior Welfare Center.

N. Georgia Conference KUMw Network are working in the day and making masks at night, and sending them to Korean restaurants and doctors’ offices. They also sent 1,000 masks and 400 red bean bread to the elderly living alone.

N. Illinois Conference KUMw Network delivered 600 surgical masks free of charge, via Chicago Korea Daily. They are planning to donate around 200 cloth masks to a community nursing home, as well as send child masks to NNKUMw.

Cal-Nevada Conference KUMw Network has various churches participating in donating for handmade masks, purchased masks, and relief funds. They donated 1,706 child masks, 1,280 adult masks, gloves, relief offering, and food items to the community.

Cal-Pacific Conference KUMw Network participated in making cloth masks, as well as volunteered to manage orders of child and adult masks to a seaming factory.

W. Ohio Conference KUMw Network sent 2,000 masks and a donation to purchase child masks, upon hearing the need for child masks; they expressed their gratitude to be able to participate in such a good deed.
